

DAILY AFFIRMATIONS

I am faithfully trusting in God, through His Holy Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, knowing he is with me at all times and constantly providing for all of my needs.

I am quietly communicating with God on a daily basis and am consistently and religiously attending church on a weekly basis.

I am fearlessly and willingly dealing with everything that comes my way today - with the help of GOD and ONE STEP AT A TIME.

I am living life fully and am personally fulfilling my purpose here on earth.

I am taking time daily for myself and am confidently expressing my true feelings.

I am quietly surrendering and humbly seeking the peace I desire in my life.

I am slowly achieving the serenity I seek by daily behaving responsibly and courageously taking appropriate action.

I am compassionately caring for my family and friends.

I am happily and tirelessly working on my relationship with Bruce and on being a good friend.

I am attentively giving my attention to others today and happily learning and benefiting from their presence in my life.

I am confidently building the foundation for a successful business and am comfortably earning a living.

I am successfully getting myself out of debt without incurring more debt and am financially independent on December 31, 2010.
